EVENING SERVICE

1800

The Dean and Chapter warmly welcome you to St Paul's Cathedral.

In 2004 the Cathedral and Diocese of London celebrated an important anniversary of the foundation of the first cathedral on this site. St Mellitus - the first Bishop of London - dedicated a church under the patronage of St Paul on top of this low hill overlooking the Thames 1400 years ago last year.

We welcome all who come to this holy place to join in the prayers and praises of God's people as a link in the tradition of faith that we thankfully receive, and eagerly pass to those who will follow us as members of the body of Christ.

St Paul's Institute is running a programme of events this Autumn entitled "What Can One Person Do?". The series of lectures, services and seminars are focussed on consideration of the United Nations Millennium Development Goals.

The services at 6pm throughout October will enable us to be still and to meditate on the issues surrounding global poverty, with practical suggestions for us to contribute to its eradication.

The Millennium Development Goals we are focussing on this evening are to:

Reduce child mortality

Combat HIV/AIDS, malaria and other diseases

We will be looking at their associated targets: To reduce by two thirds between 1990 and 2015 the under five mortality rate. To have halted by 2015 and begun to reverse the spread of HIV/AIDS. To have halted by 2015 and begun to reverse the incidence of malaria and other major diseases.

We will be meditating on these development goals through the eyes of the nations of Eastern Europe, particularly Russia.

We are very grateful to Alexander Ivashkin and Elena Nalimova for their contributions to this service.

Members of the congregation and visitors are reminded that the use of videos and taking of photographs are not allowed in the Cathedral and are requested to switch off mobile telephones.

All hymns covered by the Christian Copyright Licensing have been reproduced under CCL Licence no. M270640.

CATHEDRAL CONGREGATION MEETING

If you would like to know about the meetings and life of the regular congregation at St Paul's or wish to inquire about the Christian faith, please speak to a member of the Cathedral community who will be by the pulpit after the 11.30 Sung Eucharist.

The next meeting of the Cathedral congregation takes place after the 11.30 Sung Eucharist on 6 November.

For any further information please contact us by e-mail: pastor@stpaulscathedral.org.uk.

ORDER OF SERVICE

AN INVITATION TO YOUNG PEOPLE . . .

The St Paul's Lay Community (we are young, post-graduate, Christian, and enjoying London life) invite you to meet with them informally after this service.

Find us at the back of the Cathedral;
we normally seek drinks and conversation nearby the Cathedral.

MUSIC AS WE GATHER:

Slow Movement from Rakhmaninov's Sonata for cello and piano (1901)

GREETING AND OPENING PRAYER

Your word O God is a lantern to our feet and a light upon our path.

The light and peace of Jesus Christ be with you
And also with you.

Most loving God,
As your desire for mercy for those who are poor is unrelenting,
May we be unrelenting in our pursuit of mercy for all:
As your compassion for the suffering of the poor knows no limit,
May our hearts overflow with compassion for all.
Open our eyes to the structures of oppression from which we benefit,
And give us wisdom to chart a sound course amid complexity, and perseverance to continue our work until it is finished.
Breathe your life giving spirit into your Church to free us from apathy and indifference;
Through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

PRESENTATION ON MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS 4 AND 6:

To reduce child mortality

To combat HIV/AIDS, malaria and other diseases

Given by Canon Dr Edmund Newell and The Reverend Dr Dick Rogers

MUSIC FOR REFLECTION

Tchaikovsky - Andante Cantabile -

READING

Genesis 12. 1-7

Now the Lord said to Abram, 'Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'

So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. Then the Lord appeared to Abram, and said, 'To your offspring I will give this land.' So he built there an altar to the Lord, who had appeared to him.

CLOSING RESPONSES AND BLESSING

O God by whose command the order of time runs its course:
Forgive our restlessness, perfect our faith and while we await the fulfilment of your promise, grant us to have a good hope in Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord
Thanks be to God.

After the Service please remain seated to hear

HYMN R & S 95 (408i)

God is love: let heaven adore him;
God is love: let earth rejoice;
let creation sing before him,
and exalt him with one voice.
He who laid the earth's foundation,
he who spread the heavens above,
he who breathes through all creation,
he is love, eternal love.

God is love, and is enfolding all the world in one embrace; his unfailing grasp is holding every child of every race;
and when human hearts are breaking under sorrow's iron rod, that same sorrow, that same aching wings with pain the heart of God.

Words Timothy Rees (1874-1939)

Tune BLAENWERN

HYMN R & S 625

God of freedom, God of justice,
God whose love is strong as death,
God who saw the dark of prison,
God who knew the price of faith:
touch our world of sad oppression with your Spirit's healing breath.

Rid the world of torture's terror,
God whose hands were nailed to wood;
hear the cries of pain and protest,
God who shed the tears and blood;
move in us the power of pity, restless for the common good.

Words Shirley Erena Murray (b. 1931)
Written in 1981 for Amnesty International

Make in us a captive conscience quick to hear, to act, to plead;
make us truly sisters, brothers,
of whatever race or creed:
teach us to be fully human,
open to each other's need.

PRAYER

From the Lavenham church in Nairobi

We cannot merely pray to you O God to end war.
For we know that you have made the world in such a way that we must find our own path to peace within ourselves and with our neighbours.
Lord have mercy
Lord have mercy.

We cannot merely pray to you O God to end starvation.
For you have already given us the resources with which to feed the whole world.
Christ have mercy
Christ have mercy

We cannot merely pray to you O God to end despair.
For you have already given us the power to clear away slums to give hope, if only we would use our power justly.
Lord have mercy
Lord have mercy.

May the words that we pray and the deeds that we do be acceptable before you our Rock and our Redeemer.

Let us pray for the coming of the kingdom in the words Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
